cii OFAX W	CLASSIFICATION STATES
ELLOFIX & COUNTRY	Austria (Sorriet Zona) REPORT NO	1
TOPIC1	Gostzendorf Arfield. 25X1	$\chi V$
2	Military Occupation of Margarethen an Moos.	γ
EVALUATION	25X1 PLACE OBTAINED 25X1
DATE OF CONTE	NT 17 April 1951	-
DATE OBTAINED.	25V1 Add 20V2	-
REFERENCES	25X1
· · · · · ·	ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)
4.7
REMARKS
	DO NOT SHOULATE
0EV4	THE CONTRACT OF THE PARTY OF TH
25X1
f: 13 0 13	n 17 April 1951, Goetzendorf (P 49/X 57) airfield was occupied by two ighters equipped with in-line engines, three twin-engine, semi-high-wing endplanes fitted with nose wheels, and sin PE-2s. Flying was not beenved. Technical work was done on all aircraft. One radio truck itted with rod antenna was standing at the northeastern edge of the ield. *
fi in oi fi fi 2. A a	ighters equipped with in-line engines, three twin-engine, semi-high-wing endplanes fitted with nose wheels, and sin PE-2s. Flying was not beenved. Technical work was done on all aircraft. One radio truck itted with rod antenna was standing at the northeastern edge of the f: m of f: f: 2. A a: G: G: G: G: ()	ighters equipped with in-line engines, three twin-engine, semi-high-wing complanes fitted with nose wheels, and sin PE-2s. Flying was not beserved. Technical work was done on all aircraft. One radio truck itted with rod antenna was standing at the northeastern edge of the ield. *  concrete strip, approximately eight meters wide extended from the irfield east of Newhof, about ten meters northeast of Goetzendorf-Eber-assing (P 49/X 57) highway. In its present status this concrete strip fine of fine of fine of fine fine fine fine fine fine fine fin	ighters equipped with in-line engines, three twin-engine, semi-high-wing complanes fitted with nose wheels, and sin PE-2s. Flying was not beenved. Technical work was done on all aircraft. One radio truck itted with rod antenna was standing at the northeastern edge of the ield. *  concrete strip, approximately eight meters wide extended from the irfield east of Neuhof, about ten meters northeast of Goetzendorf-Eberassing (P 49/X 57) highway. In its present status this concrete strip annot be used as a taxiway.   new motor vehicle park equipped with a repair rack was observed at he northern exit of the town, east of the road to Margarethen an Moos P 19/X 57). Soviet air force soldiers, twenty to twenty-five trucks.
fine of fine o	ighters equipped with in-line engines, three twin-engine, semi-high-wing endplanes fitted with nose wheels, and sin PE-2s. Flying was not becaused. Technical work was done on all aircraft. One radio truck itted with rod antenna was standing at the northeastern edge of the ield. *  concrete strip, approximately eight meters wide extended from the irfield cast of Neuhof, about ten meters northeast of Goetzendorf-Eber-assing (P 19/X 57) highway. In its present status this concrete strip annot be used as a taxiway.   new motor vehicle park equipped with a repair rack was observed at he northern exit of the town, east of the road to Margarethen an Moos P 19/X 57). Soviet air force soldiers, twenty to twenty-five trucks, nocluding tank trucks, and one radio truck were seen.  he Castle and the Estate in Margarethen an Moos were evacuated. No oldiers or motor vehicles were observed in the town. *
fine of fine o	ighters equipped with in-line engines, three twin-engine, semi-high-wing englanes fitted with nose wheels, and sin PE-2s. Flying was not becaused. Technical work was done on all aircraft. One radio truck itted with rod antenna was standing at the northeastern edge of the ield. *  concrete strip, approximately eight meters wide extended from the irfield cast of Neuhof, about ten meters northeast of Goetzendorf-Eberassing (P 19/X 57) highway. In its present status this concrete strip annot be used as a taxiway.   new motor vehicle park equipped with a repair rack was observed at he northern exit of the town, east of the road to Margarethen an Moos P 19/X 57). Soviet air force soldiers, twenty to twenty-five trucks, including tank trucks, and one radio truck were seen.  he Castle and the Estate in Margarethen an Moos were evacuated. No oldiers or motor vehicles were observed in the town. *  Comment. The small number of PE-2s and the empty quarters in Margarethen an Moos in connection with the twenty-seven PE-2s observed at fine of fine o	ighters equipped with in-line engines, three twin-engine, semi-high-wing enciplanes fitted with nose wheels, and sin PE-2s. Flying was not becared. Technical work was done on all aircraft. One radio truck itted with rod antenna was standing at the northeastern edge of the ield. *  concrete strip, approximately eight meters wide extended from the irfield east of Neuhof, about ten meters northeast of Goetzendorf-Eberassing (P 19/X 57) highway. In its present status this concrete strip annot be used as a taxiway.   new motor vehicle park equipped with a repair rack was observed at he northern exit of the town, east of the road to Eargarethen an Hoos P 19/X 57). Soviet air force soldiers, twenty to twenty-five trucks, necluding tank trucks, and one radio truck were seen.  he Castle and the Estate in Margarethen an Moos were evacuated. No oldiers or motor vehicles were observed in the town. *  Comment. The small number of PE-2s and the empty quarters in Margarethen an Moos in connection with the twenty-seven PE-2s observed at arridorf on 17 April indicate a transfer of the bonber regiment from octzendorf to Parndorf.  The transfer is believe	ed fine of fine o	ighters equipped with in-line engines, three twin-engine, semi-high-wing cadplanes fitted with nose wheels, and sin PE-2s. Flying was not becaved. Technical work was done on all aircraft. One radio truck itted with rod antenna was standing at the northeastern edge of the ield. *  concrete strip, approximately eight meters wide extended from the irfield cast of Heuhof, about ten meters northeast of Goetzendorf-Eber-assing (P 19/X 57) highway. In its present status this concrete strip annot be used as a taxiway.   new motor vehicle park equipped with a repair rack was observed at he northern exit of the town, east of the road to Margarethen an Moos P 19/X 57). Soviet air force soldiers, twenty to twenty-five trucks, including tank trucks, and one radio truck were seen.  he Castle and the Estate in Margarethen an Moos were evacuated. No oldiers or motor vehicles were observed in the town. *  Comment. The small number of PE-2s and the empty quarters in Margarethen an Moos in connection with the twenty-seven PE-2s observed at armdorf on 17 April indicate a transfer of the bonber regiment from cotzendorf to Paradorf,	ed fine of fine o	ighters equipped with in-line engines, three twin-engine, semi-high-wing capplanes fitted with nose wheels, and sin PE-2s. Flying was not bearved. Technical work was done on all aircraft. One radio truck itted with rod antenna was standing at the northeastern edge of the ield. *  concrete strip, approximately eight meters wide extended from the irfield east of Newhof, about ten meters northeast of Goetzendorf-Eberassing (P 49/X 57) highway. In its present status this concrete strip annot be used as a taxiway.   new motor vehicle park equipped with a repair rack was observed at he northern exit of the town, east of the road to Margarethen an Moos P 19/X 57). Soviet air force soldiers, twenty to twenty-five trucks, including tank trucks, and one radio truck were seen.  he Castle and the Estate in Margarethen am Moos were evacuated. No oldiers or motor vehicles were observed in the town. *  Comment. The small number of PE-2s and the empty quarters in Margarethen an Moos in connection with the twenty-seven PE-2s observed at armidorf on 17 April indicate a transfer of the bonber regiment from the observed been of ected for training purposes.  Comment. The existence of this concrete taxiway running around the notice airfield was known. Its present status and similar information	ed
fine of fine o	ighters equipped with in-line engines, three twin-engine, semi-high-wing cadplanes fitted with nose wheels, and sin PE-2s. Flying was not becaved. Technical work was done on all aircraft. One radio truck itted with rod antenna was standing at the northeastern edge of the ield. *  concrete strip, approximately eight meters wide extended from the irfield cast of Heuhof, about ten meters northeast of Goetzendorf-Eber-assing (P 19/X 57) highway. In its present status this concrete strip annot be used as a taxiway.   new motor vehicle park equipped with a repair rack was observed at he northern exit of the town, east of the road to Margarethen an Moos P 19/X 57). Soviet air force soldiers, twenty to twenty-five trucks, including tank trucks, and one radio truck were seen.  he Castle and the Estate in Margarethen an Moos were evacuated. No oldiers or motor vehicles were observed in the town. *  Comment. The small number of PE-2s and the empty quarters in Margarethen an Moos in connection with the twenty-seven PE-2s observed at armdorf on 17 April indicate a transfer of the bonber regiment from cotzendorf to Paradorf,	ed